SUPERVISOR ALEXANDER TO HOLD 2nd PUBLIC LISTENING SESSION

Residents invited to share their opinions at Dretzka Park event

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Deanna Alexander will hold a listening session in her district next week in preparation for the June County Board meeting.

“My constituents have a number of opportunities to meet with me throughout the year. Face time with the people I represent helps me do my job as a County Supervisor,” Supervisor Alexander said. “This is an open invitation for the residents of the 18th district to share their concerns and opinions with me before next week’s Board meeting.”

Supervisor Alexander represents the 18th District, which includes the far northwest corner of the City of Milwaukee and Milwaukee County. Constituents unable to attend the listening session next week are always welcome to meet with the Supervisor by appointment. Separate meetings can be arranged by calling her office at 278-4234.

Who: Milwaukee County Supervisor Deanna Alexander
What: Public Listening Session
When: Tuesday, June 26, 2012, 7:00 p.m.
